‘Immunization Options’ - Vaccination or Homeopathy?

By Dr Isaac Golden

In this seminar you will explore immunisation options, and compare vaccination and homeopathic immunisation. The aim will be to provide you with facts on which to make an informed decision, and show you that you do have choices in what can be a difficult decision.

Isaac is an internationally recognised homeopathic practitioner (since 1984), teacher (since 1988) and author of ten books. He is founder and Director of the Australasian College of Hahnemannian Homoeopathy, and is currently Business Manager of Academic Operations at the Endeavour College of Natural Health. In 2004 his research into this topic since 1986 earned him the first PhD awarded by a mainstream Australian University in a homeopathic subject.

This seminar is for all who want a balanced, informed, practical discussion of immunisation options.
